DEADWOOD NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH – OCTOBER, 2014

In September, there were several reports of gun shooting on upper Deadwood Creek.

To report incidents, call Mary Anne 964-3099, or Marina 964-3497.

DNW members meet the second Thursday of the month, at 6:30 p.m., in the Community Center.

Last month, at a County Commissioners meeting about the County's roadside vegetation management, many residents gave testimony telling the Commissioners not to spray our roads. During her well delivered testimony, Marygold McNutt made the point that she has an agreement with Pioneer to hand release the weeds from the green phone connection box nearest to her place. If you don't have this agreement, Pioneer is spraying around them. Call the good folks at Pioneer, 541 929-3135, to let them know you are willing to take care of the weeds around the phone box closest to you.

REALLY WORKS!

Isaiah taught me a cool "in the kitchen" trick.
Wear goggles or safety glasses while cutting onions.
No more tears!

Keith 964-3502

I heard a very life affirming piece on the radio. An almost 70 year old poet/professor told a tragic story. When he was 12, he accidentally shot and killed his younger brother on a hunting trip. As a young adult, he turned to writing poems. He shared that poetry was the vehicle that pulled him out of the depths and gave his life meaning. He ended the interview with this 'redemption' line from one of his poems.

"If we're not supposed to dance, then why all this music?"
