THIRD SATURDAY NEWS

Happening in October! Music to be determined.

THOUGHTS

Technology's role has begun to shift, from serving human users to pushing them out of the way so that the technologized world can service its own ends. And so, with increasing frequency, technology will exist not to serve human goals, but to facilitate its own expansion.

Like people ignorant of the plight of ants, and like ants incapable of understanding the goals of the humans who loom over them, so technology is becoming a force that surrounds humans, that intersects with humans, that makes use of humans—but not necessarily in the service of human ends. It won't take a computational singularity for humans to cede their lives to the world of machines. They've already been doing so, for years, without even noticing.

STILL CANNING TOMATOES?

Here's a tip I learned from my mentor,
Queen Tchanan:

After you blanch your tomatoes to remove the skin, run the skins through your juicer
for a rich paste-like bonus!

If you don't have a juicer, grind them in the blender, then run them through a food
mill...don't waste a thing 🤔

... and corn ...

Jairo taught me this one:

Blanch the corn, cut off the kernels and can... DON'T Throw away the cobs just yet!
Put them in a pot, cover with water, simmer them for about 20 minutes, then scrape the cobs into the water with a knife to remove every last morsel ... creates a lovely soup stock ... Why waste any part of the plant
you lovingly tended all season? ❤️

DCS NEEDS YOU!!!

Deadwood Creek Services is seeking volunteers, both to help with 3rd Saturdays
and to serve on the board.

Board duties include monthly meetings,
fundraising, and general administration of the board and the building.

Please contact a board member if you are willing to participate.

Current board member status is as follows:

Mikelle Loar - treasurer - leaving (end of 4
year term).

Mary Gibney - leaving - (end of 4 year term).

Brian Stapp - leaving - (stepping down).

Danell Sundstrom - secretary - up for re-election.

Felisa Rosa - up for re-election, but willing to step down (travelling a lot).

Carina Robicheaux - President - up for re-
election.

Elections to the board will be held at the annual meeting on November 10.

play at politics challenges the imagination, a faculty which, although a good servant, can be a bad master. The coping mechanism is to feel the emotions without letting them
become you.

let your feelings pass through you like the weather passes through the sky. yeah. not easy. one ship sails east the other west
propelled by the self-same winds that blow
'taint the force of the gales, but the set of the sails that determines which way we go.

When Nixon visited china and tried to talk

The vituperous cougar has few rivals either as a predator or a conversation starter. it's hard not to feel like a funambulist in this matter..you both want them and not want them. the balance is hard to maintain. One threat to the powers that seek to govern

and control.

Celebrate Siuslaw Salmon Day Outdoors

Saturday

Oct 19th 12:30-4:30

Join us for a day outdoors celebrating the change in season and annual return of Siuslaw salmon! Registration is required and limited! You can register by visiting our website at www.siuslaw.org -- or by calling our office at 541-268-3044.

Troll Mountain Farm in Deadwood has offered to host our annual celebration at their gorgeous homestead this year! We have arranged for folks to gather at either the Mapleton High School, or the Deadwood Community Center and be picked up by a bus. There is no public parking at the event, all attendees must use the bus. Your $20 registration helps pay for this transportation. The bus will leave Mapleton at 12:30pm and the Deadwood Community Center at 12:55pm.

Registration is required to attend! Please register by October 14th.

- Family friendly outdoor event!
- Visit and learn about a stream restoration project and hopefully watch some salmon heading upriver
- Learn about apple pressing, chestnut harvesting, foraging, invasive plant species, macroinvertebrates and more
- Raffles and prizes!
- Rain or Shine! (Dress appropriately for the outdoors)

You may choose to attend the Deadwood Community Center's 3rd Saturday Dance after the event! Dinner for sale at 6:30 and dancing starting at 7:30, Bonfire--weather permitting!
